

Singing Valentine$ Update

Yes, it seems strange to be talking Singing Valentine$ in December, but nothing seems to come around faster after the start of the year than our annual Singing Valentine$ campaign. This year's campaign may be interesting from two different aspects. First, since Valentine's Day falls on a Saturday, I am sure we will be busy on the Friday before as many people want their valentines delivered at the work place. Second, with six quartets already identified as available to present Singing Valentine$, we hope to match the workload to the workers we receive.

With our first spring show scheduled for March 6, we can't spend much time during chapter meetings on our Singing Valentine$ preparations. However, for those who would like to sing in a quartet, there will be opportunities to substitute in or even to create an additional quartet to help in this project.

We have assurances from the music staff that any foursome who wants additional coaching that there will be someone available for 30 minutes before each chapter meeting for this purpose. There is usually at least one quartet rehearsing at that time so if you would like to join in the fun, come on down at 7 to the Harris Center where we'll try to get you some experience in performing our valentine songs.

There will be two organized meetings on February 5 and 12 regarding the mechanics and operation of our Singing Valentine$ program. Additionally, there will be information sheets available and our famous little red folders will appear on January 15.

At this point, reserve Friday, February 13 and Saturday, February 14 for helping out with this most important project. Remember, besides the quartets, we need presenters, drivers, office help, and some general handy man to make this whole project to work. So plan on spending at least part of your weekend helping us present the best singing valentines program we possibly can.

Oh by the way, don't forget the wonderful party we have on Saturday night, February 14 to celebrate another great season of presenting Singing Valentine$. We will gather for a meal about 6 o'clock or so, then allow adequate time to share the joys that Singing Valentine$ has brought to the community. It is always a great time to hear the many unique stories that come out of the various presentations our quartets do. It will be a great time and of course the entire chapter is invited to share in this wonderful celebration.
